

Abdominal Support Binder

McKesson abdominal support binders are the ideal solution for compression and support for post-natal or post-abdominal surgery and abdominal strains and weakness. They feature a hook-and-loop contact closure spanning the width of the binder; it easily adjusts and secures anywhere on the product for a comfortable fit. McKesson abdominal support binders are available in several sizes.

Features and Benefits

- Low-profile, all-white design allows discreet use under clothing all day, everyday
- Lightweight, soft cotton/flannel interior lining for all-day comfort
- Elastic panels stretch to balance compression and comfort
- Multi-panel design helps prevent panel rolling or bunching
- Hand wash with cold water and mild soap to maintain hygiene during extended time of recovery
- Unisex shaped to fit male and female users
- Not made with natural rubber latex
- WARNING: Neoprene supports should not be worn by individuals with known susceptibility to dermatitis or allergies to neoprene by-products
